

FUNDING AVAILABLE

Limited funds available annually until March 2023

Livestock Tag Reader Rebate Program

Cost share funding is available for items including:

Livestock Tag
Readers

Related Software

Installation and Training

For more information on how to apply: Website bctraceability.ca | Email bctraceability@ca.pwc.com | Call 604 484 3490

Livestock Tag Reader Rebate

Here's what you need to know

Who can apply?

B.C. Livestock Operators such as :

- ▶ Ranchers
- ▶ Abattoirs
- ▶ 4-H Districts

Applicants must own, sell, feed, house, or care for cattle, hogs, sheep, bison, cervids, horses and/or goats in B.C.

What funding is available?

$3,500
Annual maximum

70% cost shared and eligible items funded by the program include:

- ▶ Livestock tag readers (hand-held or panel readers)
- ▶ Reader installation
- ▶ Related software
- ▶ Related equipment training

Tag readers must be on the Canadian Cattle Identification Agency's approved list (link available in the application form).

Standalone software is eligible but applicant must prove they already have a tag reader in place (proof of purchase) and provide confirmation from either tag reader or software supplier that the two are compatible.

Ineligible items include, but are not limited to: taxes, computers, ear tags, load bars, and livestock handling systems.

All eligible participants in the Program are required to:

- ▶ Have an active 9-digit business registration number (BRN) or have an active GST number;
- ▶ Constitute a legal entity;
- ▶ Be based and operating in BC; and
- ▶ File business or farm income taxes in BC.

* All livestock operations are required to be registered in the BC Premises Identification Program: www.gov.bc.ca/premisesidprogram

How do I apply?

1 Check CCIA Reader List for Eligible Items

Check the Canadian Cattle Identification Agency (CCIA) RFID Reader (Transceiver) List for eligible tag readers.
Version as of November 2019

2 Complete Rebate Application

Select approved tag reader from the CCIA approved list

Purchase eligible item(s)

Application form & claim submission

Review & reimbursement

For more information on how to apply:
Website: www.bctraceability.ca
Email: bctraceability@ca.pwc.com
Call: 604 484 3490